Ten Ways for You to Help Improve Your Church

1. Attend services regularly.
2. Attend also the business meetings, and show interest in the work.
3. If you are elected to an office, accept it, and do your best.
4. Support the Church with your offerings. Give as God blesses you.
5. Urge members who attend once in a while to come to church regularly.
6. Invite others to come to church with you.
7. Be kind and courteous to visitors.
8. Never complain about other members.
9. Pray every day for the success of your Church.
10. Read your Bible daily, so you will know what Jesus wants you to do for His Church.

Satan at Work

Oh, the devil laughed
When the train went past
And the pastor was left behind;
For he was sitting,
Closed off by a partition
Of wood, where he could not see
The South Shore pulling in.

The old evil Foe of peace
Has set a wrong track
Among the saints, God's children
By grace and faith,
On the way of life with Christ.
Our temptations teacher was seeking
And roaring his sorrow and anger
Upon the people of loving grace.

"Let every weakness produce darkness,"
He cried out, in hatred of Him
Who first overcame by the Cross
And rose again.

So we, dear children of the Father,
In Jesus, the Savior from sin,
Will go on, endure evil's spite
And make right the wrong
By seeking each other's forgiveness;
Where sorrows multiply,
Return again from every sin
To the dear name of Jesus,
Who does bless us;

"For where I am in each soul,"
He promises,
"There is life and trust
In the light of heaven."

Come, then, and see
What great things the Lord has done
By His mighty arm and His salvation.
Turn not away to let sin reign more,
But in your souls see God's forgiveness.
Change your sorrows into joy
For to bless God's name,
Mighty to save each soul by grace.
Amen. Dear Lord, hear us
In the name of Jesus and His love.

Bible Readings for August, 1952

Oh, grant that in Thy holy Word
We here may live and die, dear Lord!
And when our journey endeth here,
Receive us into glory there. Amen.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 10 — Read Luke 11:9-13

Pray for the Holy Spirit

Do you pray? Do you continue in prayer? These words of Jesus should urge us to do that. He tells us to continue prayer, saying: "Ask, seek, knock." We do this as we would go and knock at the door of a friend. Because he does not come to open, we knock harder. And if he does not yet answer, we knock still harder. So we should pray to our heavenly Father and never give up. And to make us still more diligent in prayer, He gives us wonderful promises. "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." Three beautiful promises! "For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened." Oh, why are we so slow and lazy in prayer? Read these precious promises of our Savior again, and you will pray diligently and without stopping.

We ought to do this because He is our dear Father in heaven. What will an earthly father do for his children? If they ask him for bread, will he give them a stone? If they ask for a fish, will he give them a serpent? Or if they ask for an egg, will he give them a scorpion with a poisonous sting? No, no; a dear father never will do that. Although he is evil, he will give only good things to his children when they ask him. Now, Jesus says: "Much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him." The Holy Ghost is the greatest and most necessary Gift. And here our Lord tells us to pray for this gift of the Spirit. We need Him to bring us to the Cross of Jesus, so that we can say: "Jesus loved me, and gave Himself for me." We need Him to keep us in the true faith to the end. And, finally, we need Him also to lead us on a holy God-pleasing way to the glory of our Savior's precious name. And Jesus promises that our heavenly Father will give us His Holy Spirit. Pray always. Give Him no rest!

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, Thou that hearest

prayer, grant me Thy Holy Spirit. I am trusting in Thee and Thy goodness in Christ Jesus. Amen.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 17 — Read Luke 11:14-20

The Son of God Saves Us from the Devil

Jesus drove out a devil; and it was dumb (could not speak). And when the devil came out, the man spoke. And the people were surprised. Jesus did wonderful works. By these He showed that He is the Son of God, a mighty Savior.

But some would not believe, and said: "He makes the devils come out through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils. He does these things with the devil's help." Others tempted Him and asked for a sign from heaven. He had done many miracles, or wonderful works, but they believed not. They wanted to say: "Now show us by a sign from heaven that you are not doing these things with the devil's help." But He knew their thoughts. He knew they were tempting Him, and by knowing that showed them that He is from heaven.

He showed them how foolish it is to say that He drives the devils out by the chief of the devils. Devil fighting devil! A divided kingdom, in which man fights against man, and house against house, such a kingdom will not stay, but will fall. So if devil fights devil and is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand?

Again, also their children say that they drive out devils. Surely they would not say that their children are doing that with the devil's help! Why then say that Jesus does it through the prince of devils? Their children therefore will judge them for saying that. Jesus does it with the power of God. Therefore the Kingdom of God truly has come upon them. The Messiah, the Christ and Savior, has come into their midst.

Come, accept Him for your Savior! He can save; yes, He has saved us from the devil's power. We now are His. Praise be unto Him now and forever.

PRAYER: Thanks, mighty Savior Jesus Christ, for saving us from the devil's power and for making us God's dear children by faith in Thy blood, through Thy Holy Spirit. Amen.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 24 — Read Luke 11:21-26

Only in Jesus are We Saved from the Devil

Jesus made a devil come out of a man. That man now surely is stronger. A strong man armed keeps his good things in peace. But if a stronger man comes, he takes from him all his war things in which he trusted; and then he divides the things he took from the strong one. The devil is the strong one, and he has people in his power. And man can do nothing about it. But now the Lord Jesus, stronger than he, comes and saves the sinner from the devil's power and shares the victory with him. Trust in Him! Come, work with Him who saved you. Help Him in gathering others around His Cross. If you are not with Him, then you are against Him. If you do not gather people unto Him, then you scatter them.

Watch and pray! If a man has turned to Christ, the devil will try his best to get him into his power again. The devil is gone out of a Christian and finds no rest. And he says: "I will return unto my house from which I came." And often he finds the house, the heart of man, empty. It is not filled with the love and grace of Jesus Christ. He finds it swept and decorated for sin and all ready for him and his wicked work. And he goes and finds seven other devils more wicked than himself, and they live in that heart. And that man becomes worse than he was at first. So often people have found Jesus, have learned to know Him and His love. But then they again fall away and again are in the devil's power. And now they are more wicked than they were before.

Come, stay with Jesus! He has forgiven all your sins and has saved you and wants to bring you to heaven with Him. If you let the devil come into your heart again and live in it, then you shall receive greater damnation. Watch and pray!

PRAYER: Dear Lord Jesus, Thou hast saved me from the devil's power. For this I thank Thee. Now help me stay with Thee and no more come under the devil's power. Amen.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 31 — Read Luke 11:27-28

Hear the Word of God, and Do It

Jesus spoke wonderful words. Never did any man speak as He spoke. Therefore a woman among the people that heard Him cried out, saying: "Blessed is Thy mother, from whom Thou art born and who has nursed Thee!" Often people praise a mother who has a famous son, one who speaks and does great things. But that does not give true blessedness or happiness. It brings glory and honor before men, but that is all. This also did not save Mary from sin — that she had Jesus, mighty in word and deed, for her son.

Our Lord then shows how one may get true happiness. He says to the woman: "Yea, rather [more] blessed are they that hear the Word of God and keep it." Only God's Word can give true happiness. Jesus preached the Word; the twelve disciples preached it; our pastor preaches it. And now Jesus calls them blessed who hear it. Indeed, they are a happy people. They receive many blessings. This Word of God makes them wise unto salvation. It shows how we can get forgiveness of sins and everlasting life. Man's word cannot do that. Yes, man also has a way to heaven and says: "Try to do good. Try your best. Then you will go to heaven." That cannot save a sinner. But the Word of God can. Therefore happy are they that hear it in church and home!

However, it is not enough to hear it. No, we also must keep and do it. It is not enough to hear that Jesus died for sinners. We must also accept that, and say: "I believe Jesus died for me, to save me from sin." Again, it is not enough to hear that now we ought to love God with all our heart and mind and soul and to love our neighbor as ourselves. We must also do it out of love to Him, because He first loved us. The Word of God gives strength for such a faith and such a love. Oh, hear the Word of God, and do it! Then you shall have a blessed life, not only in this world, but also in the world to come! God grant it to you!

PRAYER: Thanks, heavenly Father, for Thy precious Word of salvation through Christ Jesus. By Thy Spirit help me to believe Thy Word and always gladly hear and learn it. Amen.

Studies in Luther's Catechism

Sixth Chief Part — The Lord's Supper

How Can Eating and Drinking Help Us?

Great blessings Jesus offers, gives, and seals to us with His body and blood in the Holy Supper. These blessings are forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation. Now who receives these blessings?

Only Believers Have These Blessings

Luther says in his Small Catechism: "He that believes these words has what they say and express [announce], namely, the forgiveness of sins." As he who believes Christ's words and promises in Holy Baptism has forgiveness and salvation, so he who trusts the word of Jesus in the Holy Supper has what these words say. Only by faith a sinner makes these blessings his own. Luther writes in his Large Catechism: "This faith He Himself demands in the Word when He says: Given and shed for you. As if He said: For this reason I give it, and bid you eat and drink, that you may claim it as yours and enjoy it." That is faith when you go to the Lord's Table, trusting in His Word, and joyfully saying: "I eat Christ's body and blood of which He says that it is given and shed for me; and my forgiveness is sure." When you remember these precious words of Jesus while eating and drinking this Holy Supper, only believe, and forgiveness is yours.

If You Believe Not, You Lose These Blessings

They who come and believe not these words and promises, have no blessings, just as he who is baptized and believes not receives no forgiveness. All who come to the Lord's Table eat and drink the body and blood of our Lord Jesus. And Jesus offers life and salvation to everyone who eats and drinks. But he who believes not goes away without these great blessings promised in the Lord's Supper. Yes, he eats and drinks damnation to himself, as Paul writes in 1 Cor. 11:28-29.

Go to His Supper Trusting in His Promises

May our Lord Jesus by His Holy Spirit grant you such a faith and make you sure of His forgiveness. Then you always can go away from the Lord's Table in peace, saying:

Thy body, given for me, O Savior,
Thy blood which Thou for me didst shed,
These are my life and strength forever;
By them my hungry soul is fed.
Lord, may Thy body and Thy blood
Be for my soul the highest good.

Field Gleanings

St. Louis, Mo., April, 1952. — Mrs. Doris Moore was confirmed on Palm Sunday. Miss Joyce Langeneckert, another member of the confirmation class, was taken ill and is finishing her confirmation study privately with the pastor.

Mrs. Hulda Roesch received a diamond ring from Mr. Hubert Elrod on April 11.

May 5 was the date set for a cleanup-paintup program to start on the parsonage. Everyone was invited to help.

During Easter vacation, Student Herbert Drachenberg spent one week in Colorado and one in Kansas City, helping Pastor A. E. Ferber all this time.

Miss Mattie Hanners moved to Hornersville.

Mrs. Walter Viets went to Marysville, Ohio, for a few weeks' visit. I. A.

Tampa, Fla., June 1, 1952. — An instruction class was started here today at 2 P. M. At the 3 P. M. service, fifty-eight Deaf, nineteen hearing friends, and eleven children came to worship. Two visitors from out of State were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kurtzeborn of St. Louis, Mo. We thank the ladies of Zion Lutheran Church for monthly coffee and cake. F. G. G.

Decatur, Ill. — Mr. William S. Smith, a staunch attendant at our Decatur services until stricken some time ago, departed this life April 9. We conducted the funeral services on Good Friday, and on April 12 he was laid to rest at Lebanon, Ill., beside his wife, who died two years ago. They were true Christians, and with joy saw the day coming when they would be with Christ in Paradise. N. P. U.

Jackson, Miss. — Mr. Robert Fulton Ellis departed this life on the morning of March 21, 1952, at his home. He reached the age of 73 years, 7 months, and 21 days. Funeral services were conducted on March 22, with Vicar Lee Lennon officiating. Words of comfort were addressed to the family from Romans 8:31-32. Mrs. W. G. Goodwin opened the service with the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee." He was laid to rest in the Underhill Cemetery in Brownsville Community.

Mr. Ellis was born in Hinds County, Bolton, Miss. He attended the Mississippi School for the Deaf, and was a printer by profession. Mr. Ellis was a resident of Jackson since 1933. He was forced to retire from the printing profession by a long illness.

He is survived by his wife, the former Lucille Spain; two sons, Nathaniel F. and Bobby C. Ellis, both of Jackson; a daughter, Mrs. Ava Boswell of Thomasville, Ala.; and a number of other relatives.

Pallbearers were Mr. W. G. Goodwin, Mr. Clyde Miller, Mr. Ruff Cook, Mr. Cecil Davis, Mr. Jacob Alexander, and Mr. Roy Graves.

Although Mr. Ellis claimed membership in the Bolton Presbyterian Church, he attended our Lutheran services when able, and he was served by the Lutheran pastor during his last long siege of illness. He was a devoted reader of Holy Scripture and readily confessed his faith in the Crucified One. L. L.

Rockville, Ill. — Welcome new Lutheran members! On April 20, five people were confirmed and four of them baptized. Also a baby girl was baptized during the same service. The names of the new members are: Mr. and Mrs. Ames Rains and son John, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Suhr. Little Joyce Annette Rains, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rains, was the youngster who was baptized. Her sponsors are Mrs. Ames Rains and Russell Rains. During the service Rev. H. Hitzemann of Lena, Ill., signed the Lord's Prayer. He is interested in sign language and likes the deaf people. After the service we had a fellowship luncheon in the church basement. R. M.

Milwaukee, Wis. — April 23, 1952, was the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sutter. Members of Emmanuel Church had a service of praise and thanksgiving on Sunday afternoon, April 20, conducted by Pastor Martin Mueller. The happy couple was then honored with a dinner prepared by a group of women members headed by Mrs. Werner Hoewisch. The floral decorations were lillies and daisies. A gilded miniature tree bearing 100 shiny half-dollars was the gift of members and friends to Mr. and Mrs. Sutter.

During the 54-year history of Emmanuel Congregation of Deaf, Mr. and Mrs. Sutter have played a prominent role. Mr. Sutter is a charter member of the congregation, served efficiently as secretary for a total of almost 30 years, and also held various offices through the years. Mrs. Sutter was received as a member by the rite of confirmation on January 31, 1904. They have the distinction of being the first couple married in Emmanuel Church to observe their golden anniversary in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutter are residents of The Home for Aged Lutherans. Here they are spending the evening of their life, praying with the Emmaus disciple: "Lord, abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent."

On May 24 Verna Berlin and Conrad Wang were united in marriage by their Pastor, Martin Mueller, in Immanuel Church at Wisconsin Rapids. After a honeymoon trip to Oklahoma the newlyweds are making their home in Milwaukee. Both are faithful members of our Church. May Jesus abide as the welcome Guest in their home.

Alexander Poliak was received into communicant membership by confession of faith and Baptism on May 25. "Be thou faithful unto death."

On June 6, 1952, Martin Edward Mueller, son of Pastor Mueller, and Albert Macek were graduated from Concordia College, Milwaukee. The parents of Albert are Mr. and Mrs. James Macek, members of our Deaf congregation. Both young men intend to enroll at our Seminary in St. Louis this fall. Albert Macek was an honor student in a class of 56 and editor in chief of the college paper. Is he the first son of Lutheran deaf parents to enroll at our Seminary? If there are others, we would be glad to receive information accordingly. (William Hausman, St. Louis Seminary, got there first.—Ed.)

On March 23 these two students solicited pledges of nearly $700 in Emmanuel Congregation of Deaf for the "Conquest for Christ."

The Milwaukee congregation of Deaf has now been entirely self-supporting for two years. This group of 105 members receives no support from any source. M. E. A. M.

Jacksonville, Ill. — The chapel is gradually nearing completion. Ground was broken April 1, 1951, excavations were made, and foundations were poured by May 25. But steel for the floor was not obtained until the end of September. Construction began in October, but the long and hard winter stopped work by the middle of December. In March, work could begin again, and by April 1, 1952, the trusses for the roof were placed, and now the roof is built. Despite weather conditions, work can now proceed inside. We hope that chapel and parsonage can be in use by the time the Deaf children return to school in September. The struggle for the remaining needed funds goes on, as the rising building costs have made the building costlier than at first expected.

The auxiliary of Christ Church for the Deaf at Jacksonville is working on the project of getting the hangings for the altar of our chapel. The little group is really active in the interest of the congregation.

The Springfield seminarians of our Deaf Missions class have been standing by us faithfully all year, two or three coming every Thursday and Sunday to help. We now have 87 children in our classes at the Illinois School for the Deaf. The students that have helped us this year are Messrs. Stacy, Boerner, Mumm, Kleinfeldt, Goering, Rath, Zacharias, Beck, and several others. We surely appreciate the help, and the Deaf children love these consecrated men.

Mr. John Huff, one of our members, departed this life February 17, after a lingering illness. He was laid to rest February 19. He was 76 years old.

Mr. Felix Lupien, the treasurer of our group at Jacksonville, who is 83 years old, fell and broke a hip in January. Five years ago he was injured by a car and broke the other hip. He now lies helpless but is cheerful despite his suffering.

N. P. U.

Bloomington, Ill. — Karen Maude, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Jackson, was laid into Jesus' arms in Holy Baptism November 11.

N. P. U.

Springfield, Ill. — Torrence F. Lowe and his wife, Frieda (nee Deutsch), were baptized on December 12, 1951, joining our group.

N. P. U.

Florence, Ala. — The Deaf of this community really appreciate hearing God's Word. One man drives in 50 miles from Tennessee; another couple comes in from Rogersville, Ala.; another couple comes by bus from Russellville, Ala.! An Easter service was held here at 4:00 P. M., with visitors from Memphis attending. After the service the pastor and his wife enjoyed a meal with Mr. and Mrs. Iva Cottle of Rogersville. In the evening several friends came for a social get-together. Several regular visitors have expressed the desire to study the Bible teachings and become members of the Lutheran Church (we have no members here as yet).

Russellville, Ark. — We officially began preaching here for the Deaf on March 23 and were happy to have a group of fourteen. Most of the Deaf drive in, or come by bus, from near-by towns.

We are happy to report that other preaching stations in the North Dixie Field are succeeding, with God's help and blessing, and we hope to continue bringing the message of salvation to as many Deaf as possible in this territory. Pray for us!

The Deaf Man's Soliloquy

To me, while neither voice nor sound from earth or air may come,

Deaf to the world that brawls around, that world to me is dumb.

Yet well the quick and conscious eye assists the slow, dull ear;

Sight can the signs of thought supply and with a look I hear.

The songs of birds, the waterfall, sweet tones and grating jars,

Hail, tempest, wind, and thunder — all are silent as the stars;

The stars that on their tranquil way, in language without speech,

The glory of the Lord display, and to all nations preach.

Now, though one outward sense is sealed, the kind remaining four,

To teach me useful knowledge, yield their earnest aid the more.

Yet hath my soul an inward ear, through which its powers rejoice:

Speak, Lord, and let me love to hear Thy Spirit's still, small voice,

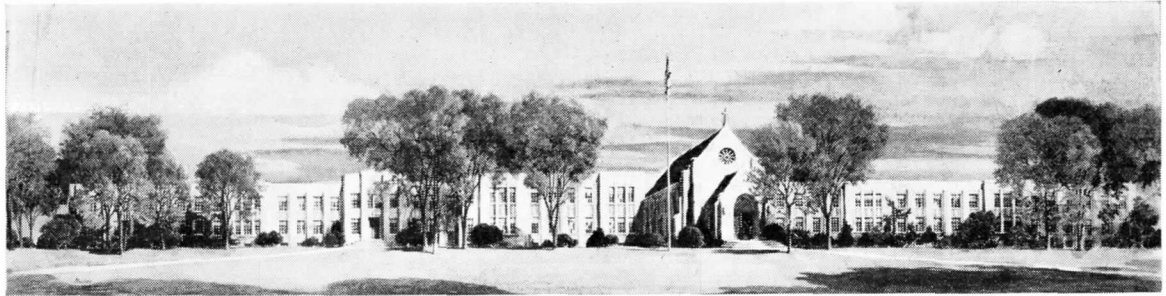

So when the archangel from the ground shall summon great and small,

The ear, now deaf, shall hear the sound, and answer to the call.
