An Evangelism Fable

Once upon a time, in a country not too far from here, there lived in a big barnyard a little red hen. She was a concerned red hen, a dedicated red hen, who took life seriously.

One day the little red hen was asked by the little black dog, who had a little touch of white around his shoulder that some said looked like a collar, to call on a naughty little cat that had been in trouble.

The little red hen, though she was not sure she could help, agreed to go. The little black dog barked the suggestion that she take someone with her. She said it was written somewhere that to go in pairs was better for making calls.

A little smile came on the face of the large white duck when the red hen asked him to go along. "Not I," he quacked, "for I have a new idea. I must study it to see whether it is a good idea."

With that answer the white duck waddled away, looking up-

Editor's New Office

Rev. Martin A. Hewitt The Deaf Lutheran 101 N. Beaumont St. St. Louis, Mo. 63103 ward. Some said he looked upward for inspiration.

The off-white goose honked nervously when asked. Everyone said he was quite impatient and busy.

"Sorry," he said quickly, "but there are a thousand, or maybe a million, decisions I have to make, and you know that as an administrator I have . . ." but his chatter trailed away as he hurried, mumbling, into the coop.

The little red hen tried other hens, since there were many in the barnyard. But some were busy planning a new chicken coop, and others were busy laying eggs, and some were going to meet with the off-white goose to make some very important decisions.

Still others had been walking back and forth, preparing to question the large white duck about his new idea, and trying, however awkwardly, to waddle while looking intently upwards.

And so the little red hen went alone. She called on the little cat that was in trouble.

There were other times the little red hen was asked to do things by the little black dog who some said had a touch of white that looked like a collar. At those times, too, the others were too busy to go along. However, the white duck marvelously did quack down all questioning of his new idea. The off-white goose was admired for honking instant decisions. And it must be said too that all the other hens succeeded in building a magnificent Gothic chicken coop.

Then, one day, the little red hen received her last call. "Do come with me" were her final words. But all the others lived happily ever after, until they died.

The little red hen is like the person who really takes Christ seriously and believes in Him and does His work. The other animals are like all the people who do not have time for Christ—they are too busy.

When the little red hen received her last call, she was like the Christian who dies and goes to heaven. The others live happily on in their life on earth but what about their life after death?

"For God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not die but have eternal life." (John 3:16 TEV)

Report from the Regional Advisers

This new section of the DEAF LUTHERAN is brought to you to keep you better informed about the activities of your church.

The last meeting of your regional advisers was held in Chicago, Ill., Feb. 23-24. Present at this meeting were Pastors Herbert W. Rohe, secretary of ministry to the deaf; Earl J. Thaler, chairman; William Ludwig; Donald Leber; William Lange; Martin Kosche; Clark Bailey; and Wayne Bottlinger. We were pleased to have special guests during parts of this meeting, including Pastor Martin Hewitt, editor of the DEAF LUTHERAN, and Pastors Sterling Simonson and Ingvald Thvedt of The American Lutheran Church. The following items were discussed in the 2-day meeting:

1. International Lutheran Deaf Association. The proposed constitution of ILDA was discussed. The constitution of ILDA must be in agreement with the Handbook of our Synod. Consequently, it has been worked out with this in mind. Before it is official it must be accepted by the deaf! Each region of our deaf mission will send one deaf representative to attend a special organizational meeting in June before our pastors meet at Ephphatha Conference.

2. Subsidy. The problem of money to operate our deaf mission was discussed. Churches throughout the nation are having money problems. We pray that the deaf themselves will come through and support their own churches more to help in the shortage of funds.

3. Deaf Lutheran. Pastor Hewitt and Pastor Thaler made presentations regarding the DEAF

Dixie Deaf Lutheran Conference June 16-18 Houston, Tex. * * Central Regional Conference July 17-19 Concordia Seminary St. Louis, Mo. * * * Northwest Lay Conference Julv 24-26 Post Falls, Idaho * Midwest Lutheran Deaf Lay Conference Aug. 14-16 Rockwell City, Iowa * -*-Eastern Regional Conference September (?) * * Great Lakes Regional Conference Oct. 2-4 Camp Pioneer Near Buffalo, N.Y.

LUTHERAN and how we can improve it for the deaf.

4. Lutheran Deaf Mission Society. Plans were made to print new brochures and offering envelopes for LDMS to encourage better support to foreign deaf missions.

5. Vacancies. The problem of vacancies in our deaf mission took up a large part of the meeting. We ask all of you to pray the Lord to send more pastors who are willing to preach to the deaf!

6. Census of the Deaf. Pastor Simonson made a report on the census of the hearing-impaired taken in congregations of The American Lutheran Church. A motion was made that the three major Lutheran Churches join together for an all-Lutheran census of the hearing-impaired. Arrangements will soon be made between The American Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Church in America, and our Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod.

Many other problems, programs, and blessings were discussed by the regional advisers, too many to report at this time. However, we trust that this short report will help you to understand the work of your church. Feel free to contact your own regional adviser for more information and assistance. Rev. E. J. THALER Chairman

Plans for ILDA in 1971

At the regional advisers meeting in Chicago, Feb. 23—24, further plans were laid for the formation of the International Lutheran Deaf Association (ILDA) in 1971. For the third time a proposed constitution and bylaws were studied, and we feel these are now ready for study by the congregations at their regional conferences this year. Four copies of the bylaws will be sent to each congregation so that all church officers may have copies.

In June, 2 days before our Ephphatha Conference meets, lay representatives from each region will meet with the regional advisers, June 22—23, at Concordia College in Milwaukee to review the proposed bylaws and prepare them for the first constituting convention of ILDA in 1971. The meeting in Milwaukee is to begin at noon on the 22d. Each regional adviser will select a layman from his region to represent the region at this Milwaukee meeting.

The proposed bylaws have the initial endorsement and approval of the Board for Missions and the regional advisers. Now they are to be studied carefully by the advisers again in meeting with the laymen. Following this meeting, we hope to have all plans ready for the first convention of ILDA.

In preparation for the first convention, each Regional Conference is to nominate a slate of candidates and elect a layman to be its representative to the ILDA convention. However, we hope to have good representation from all of our congregations at the first convention. We would urge all of our members, especially church officers, to attend this first convention. It will be a most historic milestone in our history.

It is also planned that the ILDA convention will elect the pastors who are to serve as regional advisers. The ILDA convention will also choose its two representatives to the Board of Directors of the Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf (COSD).

If our 1970 budget permits, we may possibly have a second meeting of regional advisers and laymen representatives in the fall of 1970. REV. H. W. ROHE

Subsidy to Deaf Congregations

We are pleased with the favorable manner in which our congregations are cooperating with us in the new program of providing financial subsidy directly to the congregations. We want to express our thanks and appreciation to our congregation treasurers and to the pastors for readily assuming the added burden of work that this new program places upon them. Some "bugs" must still be "ironed out" in each congregation. We have been working on an accounting system that will soon be in the hands of each treasurer.

We would advise each congregation to elect an assistant to the treasurer so that, in case of illness and vacations, the congregation always has someone responsible for its finances. Each congregation should also elect a finance committee to work with the treasurer and his assistant in helping count the offerings on Sunday mornings and in keeping the financial records.

I'm sure that after the first year or two we will see a great improvement in the financial structure of our congregations and fields. Again, we express our thanks to all our churches that are cooperating faithfully in this new venture. We beg your patience and continued cooperation in the future as we get the "wheels" of this new "machinery" running. REV. H. W. ROHE

The Feast of the Holy Trinity

Church Year Back Cover

We have now come to the midpoint of the church year. The first half pointed out special events in the life of Jesus, emphasizing especially the two high points of Christmas and Easter. Now we begin the second half as the church responds gratefully to God for the love and forgiveness He has shown us in Jesus.

Trinity Sunday, May 24, focuses upon the mystery of our Triune God — the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The worship service notes God's appearance before us in might, glory, and beauty, and we praise Him for His mercy and power shown in creation. The Gospel for the day is the conversation between Christ and Nicodemus, pointing out the work of the Triune God to bring us back to Him (redemption) and to help us live to please Him (sanctification).

The altar coverings for this day are white to reflect the holiness and glory of God. Next: The Trinity Season.

What Does Love Look Like?

It has the hands to help others.

It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy.

It has the eyes to see misery and want.

It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of people.

That is what love looks like. — St. Augustine

Deaf Census

Sometime in September a general questionnaire with about ten questions will be mailed to every known deaf person in the U.S. This will mark the beginning of the first effort in 40 years to get a more accurate count of the deaf population in this country.

For census purposes deaf persons will be defined as "all noninstitutional residents of the U.S. who have lost (or never had) the ability to hear and understand speech even when amplified; this loss to have been suffered prior to 19 years of age."

All personal information collected will be treated in strict confidence, and all employees are sworn to confidentiality. The information gathered from this census will aid federal, state, and local agencies in planning programs for the deaf.

The National Association of the Deaf office reports that 175,000 names and addresses have been compiled to the end of February.

Looking for Interpreters

San Fernando Valley State College in Northridge, Calif., is offering ten $300 scholarships for the 1970—71 academic year to college students who can communicate manually. Applicants are being accepted from children of deaf parents or from homes having a deaf member. Scholarship recipients must meet the admission requirements of the college.

"The increasing need for competent interpreters is a crucial one," said Dr. Ray L. Jones, project director of the Leadership Training Program. "The value of interpreters to aid deaf students has been ably demonstrated at San Fernando Valley State College."

The college is recruiting interpreters in an effort to serve a greater number of deaf students. The program will also serve to recruit persons for career service to the deaf.

Applicants should address inquiries to: Miss Virginia Vail, coordinator, College Program for the Deaf, San Fernando Valley State College, 18111 Nordhoff St., Northridge, Calif. 91324.

TV Tapes Teach Language of Signs

A series of 26 half-hour television programs are available for teaching the public in the use of manual communication. These programs have been shown over educational television stations in Dallas and Austin, Tex.; Washington, D. C.; St. Louis, Mo.; Hartford, Conn.; Des Moines, Iowa; Milwaukee, Wis.; Charlotte, N. C.; and Norman, Okla.

This program, "Say It with Hands," is adapted from Louie Fant's book with the same title. It orginated on KERA-TV 13 in Dallas and has been made available for distribution through the cooperative efforts of the National Association of the Deaf Communicative Skills Program, Media Services-Captioned Films, the Callier Hearing and Speech Center of Dallas and KERA-TV 13.

Tapes of the program may be obtained on a rental basis ($10 per program) through Barry Wells, program director, KERA-TV 13, 3000 Harry Hines Blvd., Dallas, Tex., 75201.

The Media Services-Captioned Films also has a series of 16mm films. Write to: Dr. Howard Quigley, director, Educational Materials Distribution Center, 5034 Wisconsin Avenue., N. W., Washington, D. C. 20016.

Additional information on manual communication programs may be obtained by contacting Terrence O'Rourke, director, NAD Communicative Skills Program, 905 Bonifant St., Silver Spring, Md. 20910.

GLEANINGS

Lutherans on COSD Board

We congratulate our fellow Lutheran, Prof. Donald Peterson of Gallaudet College, upon his election to the office of treasurer of the Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf, replacing Pastor H. Rohe, retiring treasurer. Don was elected at the COSD Board of Directors meeting, Feb. 28 in Chicago, Ill. He is also serving as COSD representative of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association.

Also elected by the Board for Missions as Lutheran representative to the COSD Board of Directors was the editor of the DEAF LUTHERAN, Rev. Martin Hewitt. He replaces retiring Rev. Dan Pokorny of Washington, D. C., who has served as our church's representative since the beginning of COSD. Our second representative, whose term of service expires Dec. 31, 1970, is the secretary of ministry to the deaf, Rev.

Each year a new representative is elected to a 2year term. After 1971 we expect the representatives to be elected by the ILDA at its conventions.

Pastors Honored On 25th Anniversary

St. Louis, Mo. On March 1 the congregation and Guild of Holy Cross Lutheran Church for the Deaf in St. Louis, Mo., surprised Rev. Herbert Rohe and Rev. E. Theo. DeLaney with a banquet and testimonial celebrating their 25th anniversary in the ministry.

Rev. Rohe, as we all know, is our secretary for ministry to the deaf, and it was for him that this affair was primarily planned. Rev. DeLaney brought it to the attention of the church officers that Feb. 25th would be Rev. Rohe's anniversary. We even enlisted Rev. DeLaney's assistance in the preparation of this banquet, all the while keeping from him the fact that he also would be honored. Rev. Rohe and Rev. DeLaney were classmates, and both were ordained on Feb. 25, 1945. We don't know which one was the most surprised that day!

Rev. DeLaney served as pastor to various deaf congregations in Texas and California before accepting his present position as executive secretary of the Com-

DeLaney, executive secretary of the Commission on Worship of our church. Mr. Walter Viets, toastmaster at the banquet, presented both pastors with a crystal centerpiece gift mission on Worship, The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod. From that long title you can see that he is quite a big man in our circles and that we dared not overlook him!

Both of these men have been very active and generous with their time and talents at Holy Cross since our vacancy last June. They have also been assisted by Rev. Wm. F. Reinking and student Harold Munz.

We had a good turnout, and many friends were on hand to greet and congratulate the celebrants. Rev. Reinking was guest speaker. He traced back from the beginning the ministry of Rev. Rohe and Rev. DeLaney, thanking God for the gift of these two talented workers in His family.

Mr. Walter Viets served as toastmaster and presented to Rev. Rohe a big box of letters and cards of greetings and congratulation. They had been sent to Mr. Viets's home address from all over the country. Both men were also presented with gifts of beautiful crystal centerpieces and other gifts.

We wish them many more years of fruitful service in God's harvest.

Camp Program

Delavan, Wis. A Lutheran camp week for deaf teen-agers, ages 13 to 16, is being planned for the first week in July by Holy Cross Lutheran Church of the Deaf.

Rev. Martin Kosche, pastor of Holy Cross, and Mrs. Doris Myhre, interpreter at LLTI in Milwaukee, will serve as counselors. Their plans include a morning Bible study hour, and this year the topic will be the Christmas story. After studying the Bible, the young people will find costumes, scenery, and materials to act out the story. The finished product will be recorded on 16mm movie film.

The camp is not expected to cost more than $30 for the week.

Congregation to Buy Home for Elderly Deaf

Delavan, Wis. Holy Cross Lutheran Church of the Deaf in Delavan recently approved the purchase of a nearby house with the idea of using it as a home for deaf senior citizens. The congregation has asked its members and friends to loan $100 each as an investment to provide the needed down payment monies. With the help of an attorney the church is now studying how to administer the property.

Summer Directory of Regular Sunday Services

Summer vacation time is here again. Many of our Lutheran deaf will be traveling to various parts of the country visiting friends and relatives.

The DEAF LUTHERAN encourages its readers to remember to ask God for His blessings as they travel. Be faithful to Him in prayer and worship at church.

For this purpose we publish the following list of regular Sunday services. Besides these every-Sunday services, our Lutheran missionaries serve over 200 other cities once or twice a month. If you plan to travel across the country, write to the pastors in the state where you will visit. They will be happy to tell you about their services in their several cities. See page 104 for addresses.

For your information as you read this directory, "SS" means Sunday school, "BC" means Bible class, and times listed are a.m. except where noted otherwise.
