Can You Take a Challenge?

Potential Power

At Ephphatha Conference this year we discussed at some length the resolution passed at the Denver convention (1-18a). It reads in the final resolved:

"Resolved, That the deaf congregations, together with the Board for Missions and Ephphatha Conference, be urged to develop the potential of our ministry to the deaf to its fullest degree in matters of stewardship, evangelism, youth ministry, and expansion."

Notice that it mentions first deaf congregations, that is, deaf laymen and laywomen and their families. The resolution urges you to sit up and take notice of what you are, where you have been, what you have done, and where you should be tomorrow as God's people doing God's work.

Next, notice the word potential. The dictionary defines potential as "capable of being or becoming; latent." Something that is potential is hidden or undeveloped power, but it can someday blossom into full life. Our deaf congregations have potential, a sleep-

Editor's New Office

Rev. Martin A. Hewitt The Deaf Lutheran 101 N. Beaumont St. St. Louis, Mo. 63103 ing power that must be awakened into full life of service to God and man.

The Denver resolution calls for us to wake up, to "develop the potential of our ministry to the deaf to its fullest degree." The challenge is before us to be responsible in our churches. That does not mean only pastors and elected officers. The challenge is given to each individual member of every congregation.

How we may grow is the subject of another editorial. But grow we must!

ILDA in 1971?

Progress Report Milwaukee, Wis.

Deaf laymen representing the seven regions of Lutheran churches serving the deaf in North America met together with their regional advisors, June 22 to 23, in Milwaukee to study the proposed bylaws for the International Lutheran Deaf Association.

The outcome of this committee meeting was rewritten proposed bylaws and a very enthusiastic group of deaf lay representatives.

So real was their interest in ILDA that the committee has suggested a date for ILDA's constituting convention — July 16—18, 1971, in Chicago, Ill.

In addition, temporary officers were chosen to conduct the constituting convention:

Temporary Chairman — Clarence Schulz, Detroit, Mich.

Temporary Vice-Chairman — Ted Brighton, Seattle, Wash.

Temporary Secretary — Robert Baker, Kansas City, Mo.

Temporary Treasurer — Warren Riege, Milwaukee, Wis.

Temporary Parliamentarian — Marion Van Manen, Sunnyvale, Calif.

Temporary Chairman of Nomi-

Three deaf lay representatives to the committee studying ILDA's proposed constitution display their enthusiastic interest in the discussion. From the left: Marion Van Manen, lay assistant in Sunnyvale, Calif.; Billy Fitzgerald, officer of the Dixie Region from Memphis, Tenn.; and Mrs. Judy Miller, parish worker in Miami, Fla.

Committee in session, Milwaukee, June 22-23, rewrites the proposed bylaws of the International Lutheran Deaf Association. Going around the circle clockwise starting at the opening (foreground): Rev. Herbert Rohe, Saint Louis, Mo.; Marion Van Manen, Sunnyvale, Calif. (Pacific Region); Billy Fitzgerald, Memphis, Tenn. (Dixie); Mrs. Judy Miller, Miami, Fla. (Dixie); Gary Schlub, Washington, D. C. (Eastern); Ted Brighton, Seattle, Wash. (Northwest); Rev. Clark Bailey; Rev. William Lange; Clarence Schulz, Detroit, Mich. (Great Lakes); Bob Baker, Kansas City, Mo. (Midwest); Robert Schneider, Milwaukee, Wis. (Central); Rev. Wayne Bottlinger; Rev. Martin Kosche; Rev. Donald Leber; and Rev. William Ludwig. Absent from this picture but present at the meeting: Warren Riege, Milwaukee (Central); Rev. Martin Mueller; and Mrs. Doris Myhre nations — Gary Schlub, Washington, D.C.

In charge of displays — Billy Fitzgerald, Memphis, Tenn.

To give ILDA the needed funds to start, the committee suggests each deaf congregation include a figure of $125 in its 1971 budget and send the $125 to the treasurer before May 1, 1971.

Each region is asked to help in making ILDA 1971 a success by accepting part of the work of the constituting convention. The assignments are as follows:

Eastern Region — nominations and elections.

Great Lakes Region — worship services.

Central Region — arrangements, housing, registration, equipment.

Northwest Region — subcommittees and special assignments.

Pacific Region — program and speakers.

Midwest Region — promotion and publicity.

Dixie Region — displays.

The new copy of the revised proposed bylaws has been printed and 25 copies were sent to each congregation for study this summer and fall. The committee invites your response — your questions, your feelings, your suggested changes. Write these to Rev. H. Rohe, 210 N. Broadway, St. Louis, Mo. 63102. The committee plans another meeting in late fall for the final drafting of the proposed constitution.

Measure Yourself!

Man is what he is in the sight of God, and no more. Here are some real heart-searching questions for every Christian:

- 1. Does my life please God?
- 2. Do I let God speak to me daily through His Word?
- 3. Am I really happy in Christ?
- 4. Have I ever won a soul for Christ?
- 5. Is there anyone I have not forgiven?
- 6. How much time do I spend in prayer?
- 7. What is keeping me from greater growth in my Christian life?
- 8. Does my life make Christianity attractive to others?

Are You Included in the Census?

No count has been made of deaf Americans for 40 years. A national census of deaf people is badly needed. Money for vocational rehabilitation services is given to your state depending on how many people will be served. Those concerned with deafness realize how little is known about deaf persons in the United States.

The National Association of the Deaf is conducting a national census of deaf citizens. Money for this project is provided by the Social and Rehabilitation Service of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

All services for the deaf population are inadequate. Information gathered by a census will help identify the services that are now available and what services are needed. This study will affect all deaf persons in the country, not only those that would receive services from the Social and Rehabilitation Service.

It is the goal of the census that no deaf person be overlooked. It is hoped that all deaf citizens will feel a responsibility to cooperate with the census. Information about deaf people not in the mainstream of deaf life is critically needed. This means people not in the clubs, churches, or other organizations of and for the deaf. You may know some of them. Under federal law, information sent to the census must be kept completely confidential and names will not be given to any individual or organization.

Everyone cooperating with the census will be asked to give only general information such as age, race, sex, degree of hearing loss, age that they became deaf, etc.

All deaf individuals, those who work with the deaf, and people who have deaf friends are urged to send names and addresses of deaf citizens to: National Census of the Deaf P. O. Box 14262 Benjamin Franklin Station Washington, D. C. 20044

The census is working against a deadline and needs information immediately.

The Question Box -

Q. How much should I give to church? I think $1.00 is enough each time I attend. — A Dixie Reader

A. Be alert, be on watch! For your enemy, the devil, roams around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour (1 Peter 5:8 TEV). Many people, myself included, have been victims of the devil at offering time as he tries to make us think less and less of God and more and more of ourselves. Often he wears the mask of a greeth (a greedy thought), an ugly thing that makes us forget the proper way to honor our Lord and Savior.

To give on the basis of what is "enough" is wrong. The church will never have enough money to do its work. To give on the basis of how often we go to church is wrong. Who can say with honesty that they go to church as much as they should?

The basis of proper giving should be a desire to return love to God because of the love He shows us. That love was shown in the death of His Son Jesus for us. That love is shown in His continuous care and generosity (Psalm 31:15; 37:3; 116:12). This is the best basis for giving to the church.

Remember, anyone who gives what is left over or just what is enough, isn't showing much appreciation for the blessings God has given him. The "greeth" (greedy thought) has devoured him. The right and proper gift is that which comes from the thankful heart, meant as a show of sincere love. The right and proper gift is that which is planned in advance, set aside before all other needs, at the top of the budget.

(See these verses on stewardship: 1 Corinthians 6:20; 1 Peter 4:10; Psalm 24:1; 50:10; Haggai 2:8. On thankfulness: Psalm 100:4; Colossians 3:15; 1 Thessalonians 5:18.)

The Trinity Season-3

The Church Year Back Cover

In the first section of the Trinity season we learned the great love God has for us in calling us into His kingdom. By His Spirit He brought us to faith in His Son Jesus.

The second part dealt with our responsibilities to live the new life of faith and love with God's help and strength.

Now we enter the third part of the Trinity season. The 12th through the 18th weeks (Aug. 16 to Oct. 3) follow the theme The Life of the Kingdom. First we hear of God's grace and the strength He gives us to live in His kingdom. Then on successive Sundays we learn how to serve Him with love, purity, trust, patience, and humility. The final Sunday of this part summarizes all Christian duty and teaches how it is to be done in the right spirit. Next: Trinity -4.

Trinity Burns Mortgage, Dedicates Organ

Pittsburgh, Pa. June 21 was a big day at Trinity Lutheran Church of the Deaf in Pittsburgh where 131 members and friends witnessed the burning of their mortgage note and dedicated a pipe organ.

Guest speaker was their former pastor, Rev. Frank P. Wagenknecht of Clearwater, Fla. He delivered an inspiring message based on Psalm 126:3, "The Lord has done great things for us, therefore we rejoice," and Psalm 116:12, "How can I repay the Lord for all His gifts to me?" The congregation's struggle to own a church building was compared to the 40 years of wandering of the children of Israel in the wilderness. "Now your debt is paid in full," Pastor Wagenknecht told the congregation. "You are happy and rejoice. But each one of us carries a debt we cannot repay, a debt that makes us sad. We cannot pay the debt of our sins. All the wills in the world cannot pay that bill. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Our debt has been cancelled paid in full-not with gold or silver, but with the precious, holy blood of Jesus Christ."

John Saraka, president of Trinity Congregation, burns the paid-up mortgage note. Donald Mowl, head deacon (center), and James Paul, another deacon, assist

The pipe organ was dedicated to the glory of almighty God in loving memory of Mrs. Nettie Stewart, whose bequest to the congregation made it possible to buy the organ and also pay off the mortgage.

All the officers of the congregation participated in the burning of the mortgage note before the altar. The fire was lighted by Donald Mowl, head deacon of the church. Joseph Derkiss, treasurer of the congregation, presented the copy of the mortgage note, stamped PAID, to the president of the congregation, John Saraka. Mr. Saraka burned the paper and offered words of praise and gratitude for God's manifest blessings.

At noon a delicious dinner was served by the ladies of the church. Special cakes added to the occasion. Moving pictures of the activities at Trinity, dating from its groundbreaking service in 1963, were shown. Then a special announcement was made to the surprise of Rev. Wagenknecht that the two halls in the church basement would henceforth be known as Wagenknecht Hall 1 and Wagenknecht Hall 2. Clyde Bachman, the contractor who erected the church and the educational wing, was invited to share this Big Day with us and helped to put the plaques in the appropriately designated halls.

Chief deacon Donald Mowl, speaking at the occasion, said to Rev. Wagenknecht: "It must be of great pleasure to you to see how the Lord has permitted your faithful labor to be blessed. We want to honor you because you helped us build a church with your talents that were directed by God's will."

We at Trinity were happy that Rev. Wagenknecht could bring his family to help us celebrate this special and meaningful occasion. We thank them for coming, and it was a pleasure to see them looking well and tanned. To them we say, "God be with you till we meet again."

Conduct VBS

Des Moines, Iowa. Calvary Lutheran Church for the Deaf, Des Moines, had their annual vacation Bible school for the deaf and hearing children July 6—17. The enrollment of 10 deaf and 16 hearing was divided into two classes of deaf children and three classes of hearing. The teachers of these classes are volunteers from various Des Moines churches. Mr. and Mrs. Toni Toelle, neighbors of the church, taught the primary department for the hearing children. Miss Marcia Kerns is a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church and taught the kindergarten department. Another neighbor of the church, Miss Sharon Miller, taught the nursery department.

The younger deaf were taught by a member of Calvary, Mrs. Madeline Sorensen. Rev. James C. Bengelsdorf, pastor of Calvary, taught the older deaf.

Helpers included Miss Jan Boehm of Mount Olive Lutheran Church in the kindergarten department; Kris Boehm, a teacher at Concordia Teachers College in Seward, prepared the crafts; and Mr. R. V. Currey, a teacher at the Iowa School for the Deaf, helped in the class with the older deaf.

The older deaf did some experimenting with drama during the two-week VBS. They acted out the stories of God sending Moses to Pharaoh, Joseph in Egypt (picture), and the Good Samaritan. The skit of the Good Samaritan was presented as part of the closing worship service of the Bible school on Friday morning.

Robert Naschke, believed to be the first deaf man to successfully pass the examination in Massachusetts.

Mr. Naschke is presently employed by Patten's Plumbing and Heating Co., Hopkinton, Mass. He has worked for this firm since 1957 and is to be commended for his eager and steady hard work, because it required many hours of hard study to pass a very difficult examination. This achievement should be an inspiration to all deaf everywhere.

Robert is president of the Deaf Church of Our Savior in Worcester and is very active in deaf organizations, including the Massachusetts Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf.

Pastor Honored

Rockford, Ill. The Rockford Lutheran Church of the Deaf honored their pastor, Martin Kosche of Delavan, Wis., with a reception following the church service on Sunday, June 7. The occasion marked 15 years of service to the Rockford Lutheran deaf group.

Rev. Kosche was surprised to see many visitors at the service, but did not realize anything special was planned until after the service when he entered the fellowship room where the congregation ordinarily goes after the service on the first Sunday for a fellowship supper. Here he was greeted with an ovation and first saw the decorations, cake, and gifts prepared in his honor.

After the fellowship meal and a short program the group presented their pastor with a large decorated box in which he found congratulatory messages and gifts. Money gifts totaled $94, which Rev. Kosche said he will use to purchase a new pulpit robe.

The event was planned by the Rockford Lutheran Deaf Congregation, but the Lutheran deaf from neighboring cities who are served by Rev. Kosche were also invited. About 70 persons attended. Mrs. Walter Guffey was general chairman.

In his response the pastor stated that he was especially pleased that the group did this service in appreciation for the work God has done through him in bringing the Gospel of Jesus Christ to them. This was so evident in the wording on the decorations, placards, cake, and gift container.

They were presented with a large, beautifully decorated cake with words saying: "God's Blessings, July 14, 1963 to May 3, 1970." Pastor Hewitt was given a Hamilton wrist watch with the engraved words, "Rev. M. A. Hewitt served the Lord in Cleveland," and Mrs. Hewitt was given a brass pilot wheel table clock set on a walnut base with a brass plate having the engraved words "God Is My Pilot L.W.M.L.-Cleveland," commemorating the theme she suggested for our anniversary

The listings in this directory are limited to those congregations that conduct services every Sunday.

In addition to these, your Lutheran missionaries serve 184 preaching stations throughout the United States and Canada.

If you are interested in these unlisted once-or-twice-a-month services in your state, the pastor serving your area is listed on page 152 of this magazine. He will be happy to answer any questions. banquet a year ago. The table was beautifully set with the cake, a bowl of lime punch, blue candles, blue napkins, and dark-red roses set around the table.

During the day a sumptuous potluck dinner was served, and the Akron members, as their share of the dinner, gave a beautifully decorated cake with the words reading, "Good Luck, Pastor Hewitt and the family."

During the occasion Fred Waltz, president of the congregation, and Mrs. Lillian Long, president of the LWML, told us of ways Pastor Hewitt and his wife helped the church grow so well. Pastor Hewitt and his wife responded saying that they enjoyed working with us the past years and felt that the occasion was an appreciation of what they did for US.
