Understanding the Church Signs

The Sign for Jesus

The sign for "Jesus," so well known and universally used, is made as follows: The middle finger of the right hand touches the palm of the left hand, and the middle finger of the left hand touches the right palm. The other fingers are extended upward or forward. This indicates the nail marks of "the Crucified One."

This is a beautiful and expressive sign. It is a very good example to indicate how a very fine shading of expression can be brought out by means of the sign language, and it makes a person appreciate the thoughtfulness and reverence of those who first used and introduced that sign for our Lord. Let us remember that in the sign language the index finger is "the pointer," used to direct attention to objects and characteristics; the middle finger is "the feeler," used in signs that convey sensory ideas as "touch," "feel," "taste," "sick," "sharp," etc. Now in the sign for "Jesus" the index finger is not used to point to the nail marks, but the finger of feeling softly and sympathetically touches the spots of the scars.

We all use this sign, but many people, in using it, do not realize what they really are saying and that they really are making a declaration about Him. The sign shows us what really happened to Him. The name "Jesus" means "Savior," for the angel said to Joseph: "Thou shalt call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21), and Jesus said of Himself: "The Son of Man is come to seek and save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10). So we are right when we make the sign for "Saver" or "Savior" for Him; and in making the sign we point out that the Crucifixion plays a part in this "saving"; namely, that by being crucified He paid for the sins of the world.

Now the Lord has another name, "Christ." Some use a special sign for "Christ," though the sign in the palms of the hands has always been used for His complete name, Jesus Christ. This special sign is made by placing the right C hand at the left shoulder and then drawing it down to the right hip. This is to describe the ribbon or stripe of honor which the ambassador wears: it is explained as "Christ. the Lord."

However, we can make the name "Christ" a bit clearer. We must remember that the names "Jesus" and "Christ" are not English but Greek. "Christ" means "the Anointed One," "the Chosen One," "the Only One," "the Real One." The Bible says: "There is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Jesus is the real, the only Christ.

Now if you remember this, you will find some real interest and deeper understanding in your Bible reading. So in John 1:41, Andrew comes to Peter and says: "We have found the Messiah, which is, being translated into Greek, the Christ." What did Andrew tell Peter? "We have found the Real One, the promised Messiah, the Only One." Now turn to John 4:29. The Samaritan woman at the well of Jacob has heard Jesus. She hurries to the city and tells the people: "Come and see a man that told me all things that I ever did. Is not this the Christ?" What does she mean? "Is not this the Real One, the Only One, the promised Savior?"

At the birth of the Lord the messengers of glory announced to the shepherds: "Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ, the Lord." And on the eighth day, our New Year's Day, He was circumcised (Luke 2:21), and "His name was called Jesus." Now sign it, and with your sign make a confession of your faith: "My Savior, the Real One, my Lord."

G. W. GAERTNER

(This is the third article of Dr. G. W. Gaertner's series on church signs reprinted by request from the 1959 Deaf LUTHERAN, ED.)

"Where the Church Stands Today"

An article titled "Where the Church Stands Today" appeared in the October 1970 Public Relations Journal. Rev. J. B. Mosley, the author, takes a look at the church that has many troubles today. In spite of the troubles Rev. Mosley lists six good points that I will summarize and apply to our deaf congregations.

1. With less money to spend, the church is being more careful in how and where the Lord's work is being done. Money is being used wisely and carefully, and this is good.

Our deaf congregations are learning to be careful and wisely budget their moneys. They are planning their work for the future. This is good.

2. The true power and responsibility of the individual member is being restored. The authority and power of the national church body is being challenged. The true power of the church is being restored as the power of the individual member increases, especially as he exercises his vote and "voice" in local decisions. With this power comes always a greater responsibility. Connected with this is a renewed respect for the rights of women in the church. All these are good.

Our International Lutheran Deaf Association (ILDA) will emphasize these rights of the individual — man, woman, and child. This is good. 3. The various Christian churches are now learning to live and work together.

Lutheran churches working among the deaf are taking a new look at ways and efforts to work together. We will no longer see two separate or opposed Lutheran churches working among the deaf in a single city. This is a waste of time, money, and manpower. These new efforts toward unity and harmony among Christian churches are good.

4. New forms of worship are being developed to make worship more beautiful and meaningful. For example, the religious folk music of the youth is making worship more personal, real, and meaningful for the youth.

The new emphasis on the use of visual aids in our worship is helpful. More and more of our congregations are using, for example, a rear projection screen and slide pictures during the worship service. This coming summer Ephphatha Conference will explore new forms of worship for the deaf. These things are good.

5. The church is also restudying and developing the role of the lay man and lay woman. The church is not the minister. The church is not a professional worker. But each man and woman — the whole people of God — are the church. That's how it was at the very beginning of the early Christian church in the days of the apostles. This restoration of the true church is good.

This is happening in our deaf congregations too. More and more lay men and lay women are taking more responsibility to do the work of service the Lord asks of His people. In addition, more deaf will take advantage of the two-year training program at the Lutheran Lay Training Institute in Milwaukee, Wis., for a fulltime lay ministry in deaf missions. ILDA will also help develop our lay people for their "ministry" in the church. This is good.

6. Churches are moving out into the world. The church is not waiting for people to come to the church, but the church is going out to the people. It is speaking to the great issues and problems of mankind, such as peace, race, poverty, and justice. The church does this so that men will heed God's Word and obey it. This is very good.

As a member of the Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf our church relates to the issues and problems of the deaf on a national scale. We also encourage our pastors to be members of the Professional Rehabilitation Workers with the Adult Deaf and the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf. Our deaf congregations will participate in the evangelism thrust across the country in 1973. Some of our congregations have been involved with homes for aged and infirm deaf. These are good.

Therefore, let us not decry the conditions in the church today. downgrading Instead of the church. let us recognize the church for what it is - the fellowship of God's people in Christ. Let us also recognize that when we criticize the church, we are only criticizing ourselves. The church is only what we as individual members make it.

Gleanings from Foreign Deaf Missions

Hong Kong

In their Christmas letter from Hong Kong Pastor and Mrs. Louis Jasper wrote:

The work in Hong Kong is more exciting each day, and also more demanding. We hope to be in our new school by the time you receive this letter. What a great blessing! All the work for the deaf children and young adults will be in one location! In 90 degree temperature and 90% humidity, heavy traffic can become very grueling, and the weather is like this for nearly six months of each year.

The new school will have eight classrooms, two tutoring cubicles, a multipurpose room (for chapel and other gatherings), offices for Pastor Jasper, the principal, and secretary, and some storage space. It is the entire fourth floor of a Lutheran school in Mongkok and will be the first school of its kind in Hong Kong that is, integrating hearing and deaf children. This idea is well thought of by many educators of the deaf throughout the world. It helps the deaf adjust to a hearing world and helps to overcome the prejudice the hearing have regarding the deaf.

We still have several projects in mind which are needed for the deaf in Hong Kong: a hostel for children who live too far from the school; a program for deaf-retarded children (we have a waiting list of these children, with no place to put them); a program for English-speaking deaf children; a project to produce religious materials for the deaf. As soon as the school is "settled in," perhaps these projects can be implemented. Pastor Jasper has to find the money for these projects, but we are sure the Lord will provide.

As we mentioned in our July newsletter, we can use discarded books and also pictures for teaching aids in the school. *National Geo*graphic Magazine is an excellent source of good pictures. We can also use filmstrips of almost any description and on any subject, even damaged. What is no longer useful as a strip we cut up and mount in frames as slides. If you would like to help us in our school projects, we would be happy to hear from you. Remember, save good pictures! The address of the new school will be 18 Cherry Street, Mongkok, Kowloon, Hong Kong.

From other sources we have heard that the deaf school has moved to the new school already and that our friends in Hong Kong are pleased with it. Your gifts to the Lutheran Deaf Mission Society have supported this deaf school in many ways.

As you continue to support the Lutheran Deaf Mission Society, send your contributions to the treasurer:

Pastor Stacy Ill

We read in the Sign Post newsletter from Pastor Quade the following information about Pastor Stacy's illness:

On Aug. 24 Rev. Laurence Stacy, former minister to the deaf in Iowa, suffered a slight stroke and was in the hospital for a month. He has been at Veterans Hospital in Des Moines since Nov. 2 except a brief time at home over the holidays. His wife, Ruth Stacy, sent a thank-you letter from him for the many getwell cards, letters, and Christmas cards received from many of his former deaf members. How much they have meant to him. He is still at the Veterans Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa, in Room 296, and will be for some time yet. You may write to him at the hospital or Route 1, Lacoma, Iowa 50139. We pray for his full recovery to serve the Lord.

FIELD

GLEANINGS

Lutheran School In 98th Year

Detroit, Mich. Enrollment at the Lutheran School for the Deaf, Detroit, took a sharp decline for the 1970—71 school year. When the school opened last fall, 99 pupils were enrolled — 42 boys and 57 girls. This is 15 less children than a year ago.

The limited enrollment was necessary because of a critical shortage of teachers. Currently the teaching staff consists of 16 teachers.

The annual cost to educate, house, and feed a deaf child has risen to $4,200. About one-seventh of this is received from the parents in the form of tuition fees.

Rev. Donald Hasse, formerly a missionary to the deaf in the Northern Florida-Georgia Field, was elected to the Board of Education replacing Rev. N. E. Borchardt, who retired.

This is one reason why you called a pastor for the congregation — to give help, especially spiritual help, at times of great need. When you are very sick or in the hospital, let the pastor know. Let him decide if he is too busy to visit you!

Also, don't hesitate to ask the pastor to visit you for any other reason. Often he does not know what is bothering a person or how they may need help unless they tell him.
