A Letter from Hong Kong

Office of Education for the Deaf 18 Cherry Street, 4th Floor Mongkok, Kowloon Hong Kong July 1, 1971

DEAR FRIENDS:

Twice a year we try to get a few words on paper in our minor form of mass communication. Though a few thousand pieces of mail cross my desk every year, we still have not been able to solve the problem of communicating with as many as we would like in a more personal way.

Our thoughts right now are very much concerned with packing and moving our household things. Our landlord has sold our apartment, and we will move in July to 32 Oxford Road, 1st Floor, Kowloon Tong, Hong Kong. That address is a mission-owned apartment which has many qualities not now enjoyed in our 20th-floor eagle's nest in the concrete jungle on a hill full of only 20-floor apartment buildings; such as balcony, mosquitos, airplanes overhead, trees outside the windows, and so on. This will be a "dry run" for the move next summer, when we are due to leave on furlough for one year.

We are also reaching the point where we are close enough to the time of furlough that people are asking if we are returning to Hong Kong or not. To answer the question honestly, I can merely say that only the Lord knows. We are here on a call that has no time limit attached. Technically speaking, I would continue to serve the church in Hong Kong until I accept another call to serve somewhere else. We are now working hard to get everything standing on its own by the time we are ready to board ship next summer. As far as the new day school is concerned, John Rae, the teacher of the deaf from New Zealand who has been helping us tremendously, teaching English and speech, will be leaving at the end of next month, and a Chinese teacher will take his place. At the end of this December, Darien Curtis will be completing her two years of serving in our school, and a Chinese teacher will take over as principal of the day school. We are working hard to get the Social Welfare Department of government to provide the school with a social worker and the church to take on the burden of providing a business manager who will take care of all three schools for the deaf in Hong Kong. The third school for the deaf will be starting in September 1971 if all goes as planned. The Education Department has a regulation on the books prohibiting the reclassification of an evening school as a p.m. school. Therefore, since the bulk of our evening school students now study 4½ hours a day instead of 2 as they did originally, they are evening school students in name only. By starting a new school we perform a paper exercise for the sake of the Education Department, but it benefits our students considerably. We will then be permitted to have classes on Saturday morning and extend our program to 27½ hours per week, within 2½ hours of the 30 hours offered by the day school. We will also have a chance of receiving government subsidy for the school. This would relieve a great financial burden from both the church and the parents. The third school group would be the older students who are only in primary-level education but came to us too late in their lives to progress much farther. After the switch mentioned above, this group will be the evening school.

Though much more could be said about the work, we will let that wait until another time.

Remember that we have a new address, and change your records please. We will see you in a year.

May the Lord bless you and yours.

Sincerely, Louis R. Jasper

Ephphatha Conference

Chicago, Ill.

Three one-day workshops set a fast pace for this year's Ephphatha Conference of Lutheran pastors and workers of the deaf (LCMS) at Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, July 19— 22.

The Epata Epitat, the conference newssheet, thanked the program committee for a "notable change of direction." "In terms of spirit, fellowship, learning, sharing, and frustrating us to the point of hunger," the paper noted, "this has been a refreshing conference."

One of our pastors wrote to his congregation via his newsletter: "My own opinion was we accomplished and did more in these four days than we did in any conference in recent years."

The Monday workshop dealt with our teaching ministry, specifically with deaf children. Mrs. Ann Bleuer, coordinator of the University of Wisconsin, conducted a follow-up session on last year's workshop on writing materials for teaching deaf children. In the afternoon Mrs. Bleuer introduced Dr. Leo Dicker, director of the Teacher Training Program for the Deaf at the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Dicker lectured on behavior modification and its use with deaf children having behavior problems.

Pastors William Ludwig and George Natonick led our workshop on Tuesday on meaningful worship for the deaf. Pastor Ludwig compared our present worship practice with a study he made 14 years ago.

Rev. Ingvald Thvedt, American Lutheran Church pastor of the deaf in Faribault, Minn., was a guest lecturer on the use of multimedia in worship settings. He demonstrated the various ways he uses visual aids with his congregation.

A sharing period followed as our pastors demonstrated some of their approaches to improving our worship services. One interesting presentation featured a half-hour 16mm film copy of a televised worship service by 30 members of Holy Cross Deaf Congregation, St. Louis.

Wednesday's workshop featured evangelism led by Pastors Johnson and William Russel Ludwig. Pastor Ludwig reviewed various approaches used by hearing churches. Specific emphasis was placed on the Kennedy approach with the viewing of the film Like a Mighty Army. Pastor Johnson presented his evaluation of a survey he made of our deaf mission's approach to evangelism. After this we divided into smaller discussion groups for a closer look at the theology of evangelism, our present practice, and future goals.

Besides the three one-day workshops, the conference held sessions for Ephphatha concerns. A new program committee was elected: Pastor Fred Gehrs, chairman (1 year), Pastor Arnold Jonas (2 years), and Pastor Leroy Mason (3 years). Mrs. Doris Myhre was elected corresponding secretary and editor of Exchange.

We congratulate our pastors who were honored with scrolls for their service to the Lord. Some have served all their years with the deaf; others with both deaf and hearing congregations. Those honored were Pastor Theodore Frederking, 50vears: Pastor Walter Westermann, 50 years; Pastor Martin E. A. Mueller, 40 years; Pastor Martin Kosche, 25 years with the deaf; Pastor George Ring, 25 years; Pastor Marlin Sampson, 20 years; Pastor Robert Bauer, 15 years with the deaf; Pastor Waldemar Neisch, 15 vears: Pastor Robert Corl. 10 years with the deaf; Pastor Daniel Pokorny, 10 years with the deaf:

Pastor Russel Johnson, 5 years with the deaf; and Pastor Donald Zuhn, 5 years with the deaf.

Ephphatha Conference adopted a number of resolutions, among them that we (1) encourage the Board for Missions to include our foreign workers in our program in the years ILDA meets; (2) invite to Ephphatha Conference the pastors of other Lutheran synods serving the deaf; (3) express our joy to the Lutheran School for the Deaf in Detroit on their approaching centennial celebration; (4) invite the staff of both Lutheran schools for the deaf, Detroit and Mill Neck, to join Ephphatha Conference; (5) petition Synod's Commission on Constitutional Matters for a ruling on administration of deaf missions; (6) memorialize Synod in 1973 regarding that ruling; and (7) appeal for total communication. This last resolution we print in full for the record.

WHEREAS, Concern for the deaf child has been shown in conducting a program of education with strong Christian emphasis at Detroit for a term of years now approaching the century mark, at Mill Neck now in the third decade, and in more recent years at Hong Kong and Porto Alegre, for which we praise and thank God joyfully; and

WHEREAS, Loving concern for the deaf child has been nurtured in the outstanding work of the Lutheran Friends of the Deaf, which produced the John of Beverley series of workbooks as part of a five-point program in the religious education of the deaf, as well as the John of Beverley Medal recognizing deserving individuals for services to the deaf; and

WHEREAS, We appreciate that an early understanding of language and communication of ideas are important in our mutual ministry under God's grace to enlighten the deaf with His Word; and

WHEREAS, In times past a variety of "appeals" and approaches appear to have failed to update the philosophy and methods which recognize and utilize total communication with its superior advantages attested by Lutheran adult deaf and numerous studies which document the value of its use early in the educational process; and

WHEREAS, We, in pastoral concern, are grieved that the lack of total communication impedes the Word of Life to deaf children, adults and all within the Christian home, in pastoral counseling and in public proclamation, as well as producing problems in everyday situations all through life; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the Ephphatha Conference of the LCMS, appeal to the boards of control of the Lutheran schools for the deaf at Detroit, Mich., and at Mill Neck, N. Y., to give serious consideration to the early implementation of a philosophy of total communication for the deaf child; and be it further Resolved, That we, the Ephphatha Conference of the LCMS, ask the Board for Missions of the LCMS to consider these same concerns in its dealing with all schools for the deaf it supports and to be aware of these our convictions when appeals for support are made by these schools. (The Board for Missions and Regional Advisers Council understand Lutheran schools here. Ep.) The 1972 Ephphatha Conference will meet July 24—28 at a site still to be decided. A program of 25 hours is planned with the following presentations: (1) evangelism, (2) Ephphatha Conference's history and purpose, (3) Regional Advisers Council and Ephphatha concerns, (4) federally funded programs that can serve our churches, and (5) European programs and mime (Pastor D. Pokorny). Also included are workshops on (1) adapting materials from Mission: Life and Key 73 evangelism, (2) sign-language hymns, (3) reverse interpreting, (4) media training, and (5) religious signs.

The congregation heard Rev. A. E. Ferber of Kansas City, Mo., preach and relate his experiences in his early years as missionary to the deaf.

Pastor Ferber, who has served the deaf for 47 years, conducted the first service for the deaf in Memphis on April 26, 1931. He traveled to Memphis by train from Springfield, Mo.

Gallaudet Chaplain and Swiss Minister Exchange

Washington, D.C. Two ministers to the deaf, Rev. Daniel Pokorny, Lutheran chaplain at Gallaudet College, and Rev. Edward Kolb of Zurich, Switzerland, director of religious programs for the deaf in the Canton of Zurich, are exchanging roles under a State Department Exchange Visitor program for the academic year 1971—72.

Pastor Pokorny left in July to begin a 10-month special assignment supported by The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod of St. Louis, Mo. He will study multipurpose services to the deaf, including pastoral counseling, social services, and vocational counseling at the Zurich church-state Center for the Deaf. He will be director or coordinator of the deaf center that houses the deaf chapel, high school for the deaf, vocational school, adult and counseling center. He will also be in charge of various deaf services in local institutions in the area around Zurich.

Pastor Kolb, who visited here in February, has served the deaf in Zurich for 25 years. An authority on the history of mime, he will lecture on mime for the Gallaudet College Drama Department. He will also continue his study of the American approach to working with the deaf.

Pastor Pokorny attended the World Federation of the Deaf Congress in Paris, July 29—Aug. 5. He also attended the first World Conference on Religious Work with the Deaf in Geneva, Aug. 8—28, as the representative of the National Association of the Deaf. He delivered papers on the "Value of Sign Language and Gestures in Worship," "Contemporary Music for Worship," "Sex Education," and "Preparing Parents for Baptism."

Mrs. Patricia Pokorny and three of their four children accompanied him. He plans to return to resume his chaplain duties at Gallaudet on June 21, 1972, and will conduct a workshop on the European program at Ephphatha Conference next July.

While in Europe, Pastor Pokorny's mailing address will be:

Ephphatha Camp

West Hartford, Conn. The Lutheran Church of the Deaf in West Hartford took a group of 63 deaf children from New England for a two-week camp-out at the Monadnock Bible Conference near Jaffrey Center, N. H.

The children, aged 7 to 17, who did not know Jesus were introduced to Him. And those who have accepted Him as their Savior were strengthened in their faith.

The Ephphatha Camp was supervised by a staff of 10 volunteer counselors from different walks of life. It was a unique experience for everyone who participated.

Midwest Lutheran Deaf Conference

Estes Park, Colo. About 65 deaf attended the Midwest Lutheran Deaf Conference held Aug. 13— 15 in the beautiful, majestic mountains of Colorado.

The theme of the conference was "Christian Family Living." The topics discussed in the session were "What Makes a Family?" "Improving Family Communication: Husband and Wife," "Improving Family Communication: Parents and Children," and "The Role of Finances and the Family Budget."

The Rocky Mountain Newsletter summarized the discussion in its October issue:

Christian Family Living

The family — some people think it 150

is going out of style, many are broken up by different problems, and many more need help. But the family is still part of God's plan for people. This year's Midwest Lutheran Deaf Conference took a look at the family and family life.

What Makes a Family? God did not plan for people to live alone; He planned for a man and a woman to join their lives in marriage. But that does not complete God's plan. He also planned for children to become part of the family. Even children do not complete the picture of the ideal (best) family. God Himself must have an important place in the home and family. Husband, wife, and children should all have God in their hearts.

Improving Family Communication: Husband and Wife. Communication between husband and wife happens on different levels: intellectual (thoughts), emotional (feelings), physical (sexual), and spiritual (family worship and prayer). Each level is important; and if any one is weak, the whole marriage is weaker. With God's help the Christian husband and wife work together to keep good communication on all levels.

Improving Family Communication: Parents and Children. Communication is necessary for good relations between parents and children. This can break down in any home (the well-known generation gap), but is more difficult when the parents or the child is deaf. It is necessary for both sides to work to keep lines of communication open.

Washington, D.C. Rev. Daniel Pokorny, Gallaudet College Lutheran chaplain, demonstrates religious terms in sign language in the college chapel to Lutheran religious workers of the deaf who participated in a Gallaudet Graduate School six-week session on orientation to deafness June 28—Aug. 6

The session included courses on an introduction to audiology, the education and psychology of the hearing impaired, sign language, and seminars on religious communication with the deaf. "The orientation program for clergymen appears to have been very successful, and there is discussion about having it again next year," said Chaplain Pokorny Left to right: Vicar Lawrence Guenzel, Alpha Lutheran Church of the Deaf and assistant to the chaplain, National Technical Institute for the Deaf, Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. Guenzel; Vicar Allan Page, St. Matthew Lutheran Church for the Deaf, Elmhurst, N. Y., and Mrs. Page; Rev. Robert Muller, Christ Lutheran Church of the Deaf, Washington, D. C., and St. Mark's Lutheran Church of the Deaf, Baltimore, Md.; Rev. Daniel Pokorny; and Miss Elaine Peterson, teacher, Ephphatha Lutheran Church of the Deaf, Chicago, Ill. The Christian family knows that each person is God's own. Read Colossians 3 and see what it says about the family!

Elected to office were Ronald Nester, Denver, president; Herman Butler, Colorado Springs, vice-president; Mrs. Dale Paden, Omaha, secretary-treasurer; and Dale Paden, Omaha, regional vice-president of ILDA.

The next conference will be near Winnipeg, Man., Can.

Also include in your prayers our church workers who celebrate their birthdays this month:

Pastor Robert Corl, Madison, Wis. (11-5)
Mrs. Janice Page, vicar's wife, Rochester, N. Y. (11-15)
Pastor Russel Johnson, Detroit, Mich. (11-16)
Mrs. Kathrine Thies, pastor's wife, Omaha, Nebr. (11-22)
Mrs. Judy Miller, parish worker, Miami, Fla. (11-24)

Holy Cross Deaf Congregation in Delavan, Wis., was pleasantly surprised to hear that an old-time resident of Delavan, George Wood, had remembered them in his will with a gift of $5,000.

The 75th anniversary of The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod's mission to the deaf was commemorated at the Milwaukee convention, Sunday, July 11. While historians count Rev. Augustus Reinke's March 3, 1894, service as the beginning of Lutheran work with the adult deaf, the Missouri Synod did not officially take over the work until 1896.

The New York City field of deaf missions was featured in a 4-page pictorial story in the September 1971 issue of Coronet magazine.

A groundbreaking service was held Aug. 8 at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church for the Deaf in St. Paul, Minn., for an educational-recreational building.
