DEAF LUTHERAN DEVOTION

Rev. Donald Leber, ILDA Pastoral Advisor

Well, today I finished reading the book "The Jesus I never knew" by Philip Youncey. I really enjoyed this book and it gave me a whole different outlook on life and the church. One of the last chapters talks about Easter and Ascension. Philip makes the comment, "Sometimes I think about how different the world would be if Jesus has NOT resurrected from the dead." I can just picture in my mind the disciples would not be brave enough to go out in the streets and preach to the Jews and the Gentiles. Eventually they would have to leave the room, but I guess they would not forget all the things Jesus taught them and especially they would remember the miracles HE did.

Because Easter truly did happen you and I have to listen carefully to the things Jesus Said. And because Jesus arose that means Jesus is still out there somewhere, and you don't know when you might run into HIM. One year in Columbus, Ohio, I remember that we did a play on the stage in the basement and it was about a shoemaker. An Angel told the shoemaker that Jesus was going to visit him that night. Several different people came to the door of his house asking for help, so when each visit arrived, he pushed them away. He was too busy getting ready for Jesus. Then when the angel returned and the shoemaker asked, "Why didn't Jesus come?" The angel said, "Jesus was here several times and every time you sent him away." And the Bible tells us that "Whatsoever you do to the least of these my brothers, you have done it unto ME." These words should be our guide in every day life as we wait for Jesus to return. Let everyone we meet be treated as if that person was Jesus HIMSELF.

ILDA 2001...

As of February 14th, 1999, Peace Lutheran Chruch of the Deaf (Indianapolis, Indiana) has formally offered to host ILDA's 2001 Convention.

ILDA 2003...

Convention in Minnesota has been approved by the Board and voters in St. Louis '97 convention. Editoral

Daylight Saving Time begins April 4th

"Year 2000" or the millennium bug as it is know in the computer world. I am sure that many of you are wondering what this is all about.

The Y2K problem arose when programmers of early computers represented each year by its last two digits rather than by all four — 1972 became 72 — mostly to save computer memory that was vastly more expensive at the time of early computers.

Troubles will begin when computers try to add or subtract dates using that two-digit format and the world approaches the year 2000, or 00, thinking it is new year 1900. The larger, old mainframe computers still used by government and big corporations for many vital functions are particularly vulnerable.

Please note that all Macintosh computers and other newer computers uses the full year date (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, etc.) in their system so they will not have any problems when January 1, 2000 arrive. This year, 1999, there have been a lot of talks about what might happen when the new year 2000 (January 1, 2000) arrive. Some people fear that all the electricity and gas powers will stop, can't get any gasoline or foods, etc. Some fear that they will not get their Social Security checks. Maybe the ATM (bank) machines will not work either and people will not be able to access their checking and saving accounts.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer (Dec. 29, 1998) quoted President Clinton saying the Social Security checks will NOT be delayed. The paper quoted that it took 2,800 workers, including 700 programmers, to ensure the agency's computers are ready for 2000.

The Clinton administration has set a goal of ensuring that all critical federal computer systems are compliant by March 31, 1999. A House panel said in September the federal cost could run as high as $6.3 billion to solve all the computer problems.

The ILDA Nomination Report...

James Swalley

Karen Beiter

Pastor Mark Anderson

All the ILDA regions except the Pacific Region had their conferences and the Northwest Region is the only region that nominated people for the ILDA offices. Four people were nominated, but Linda Desroisers, a delightful deaf educator from Vancouver, B.C. Canada declined her ILDA Secretary nomination with a reasonable excuse. The remaining and following three people accepted their nominations.

James Swalley from No. Manchester, Indiana accepted his President-Elect nomination. Continuing as an active ILDA member and attending numerous past ILDA conventions, he was the 1993-95 ILDA Secretary. He was previously nominated for President-Elect during the past ILDA conventions in 1991, 1995 and 1997. As a long time member at St. John Lutheran Church for the Deaf in Fort Wayne, Indiana, he served gladly in many different church offices and presently is the Secretary. He had served the Deaf community well as past President of the Indiana Association of the Deaf. He is a retired architectural draftsman and patiently assists his wife, Betty in the care of their three grown grandchildren since the death of her daughter.

Karen Beiter from Lima, New York accepted her Treasurer nomination. She is a very pleasant person and is presently serving as ILDA Treasurer. According to the ILDA Handbook, she is eligible to seek a second elected term. She is a member of Alpha Lutheran Church of the Deaf in Rochester, New York and is presently serving a third term as Treasurer. She works for NTID (National Technical Institute for the Deaf) as an instructor for the ACT (Applied Computer Technology) and also work part time for Eastman Kodak. She and her husband, John are kept busy with their three growing daughters, ages 8, 5 and 2.

Pastor Mark Anderson, a deaf pastor from Rockford, Illinois accepted his Pastoral Advisor nomination. Presently a Missionary At Large at North Illinois District, he serves in three deaf congregations—Rockford Deaf Lutheran Church in Rockford, Our Savior Deaf Lutheran Church in Wood Dale and Cary Deaf Ministry at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Cary, along with numerous surrounding churches providing interpreted worship services. Being well known, loved and admired by deaf people and pastors in ILDA, he encouraged and supported the deaf members in their planning of the past 1995 ILDA convention in Chicago. He and his loving wife, Pamela are blessed with seven children, ages 18, 11, 6, 6 (not related), 3, 2 and 1.He is very interested in spiritually guiding the ILDA Board of Directors.

At the convention time, ILDA will already have a person nominated for all the offices except Secretary. According to the ILDA Handbook, additional names can be present at the convention. Every ILDA member and congregation is encouraged to pray for the above three people nominated and continue help the ILDA search for other people whose names can be considered to serve on the ILDA Board of Directors.

The snow was blowing outside, but hands and hearts were excited inside at the Deaf Institute of Theology (DIT) workshop held at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Jan 9 to 17, 1999.

Seventeen people came to record onto video tape the first four courses of DIT. Level one deals with "Caring". The Courses include: "The Christian Caregiver" (Rev. Donald Leber, LA), "The Caring Leader" (Rev. Mark Anderson, Northern Illinois), "Getting to Know Jesus" (Rev. Daryl Gehlbach, Minneapolis), and "Everyday Life in Bible Times" (Rev. Ronald Friedrich, Dallas Texas) (The leacher's names are in parenthesis).

The teachers signed the materials. Soon we will add voice-over for hard of hearing persons and captions for those who want read the English words.

During the filming workshop, the Board for Mission Services Task Force on Deaf Missions met. They fully accepted 3 students, accepted a fourth student when all application materials arrive, and considered the names of 34 additional people.

The classes will begin on March 1 st. A student will receive books, study materials, and video tapes. They will study with a local mentor (teacher) until they understand and then they will take a final test. The test can be answered either by writing or by signing and sending a video tape. We believe we will have about 20 students in the first group.

Classes on this level are prepared for all Lutheran deaf members-male & female. As you study these classes, you will learn to be a more caring helper and leader If you would like to take one or more of the classes, talk with your pastor to get an application.

Participants in the week long workshop in St. Louis also included Carslens, Hewitt, Konkel, Matthews, Moody, Nielsen, Nix, Norton, Palmers (2), Peterson, Rynearson, Tessaro, Willig, and Sandi Green.

India Project, your ILDA mission project at work...

Two years ago, ILDA offered $20,000.00 to buy land in India for a Deaf Lutheran Training center. The money was used to buy almost 3 acres of land in Hosur, India.

Enclosed are pictures of the wall they are building around the land. They have dug two wells also. Pastor Christudos is the man wearing a white robe standing next to the well digging machine. Next to him are a deaf couple who serve as the leaders of the group. Eventually they want to have many buildings on the land. There will be a multipurpose building to be used for Church on Sunday. There will be dormitories for men and for women. There will be a couple of guest houses where people can stay while they learn how to share the gospel with deaf persons. There will also be craft shops where deaf person can learn skills for jobs.

We rejoice in the love of many members of ILDA whose gifts made this all possible.

Rev. DS. Christudos is seen praying before the digging of borewell on 3/6/1998. Two deaf adults are seen beside him.

September, 1998. Eastern side foundation wall is seen. Land area is hidden. The trees seen are the project land.

October, 1998. A part of the raising wall is seen. Two sides of the wall is completed. Western and Southern side walls are constructed fully.

The 1997-1999 ILDA Mission Project Goal has reach $30,753.00!!! We need $19,247.00 more to reach the $50,000 goal by May, 1999!

They are now learning the English way and culture of our country through Starfish Learning Center. Rose recently passed her Ohio Driving License and they bought their first car. Many members and friends from Christ Lutheran Church are helping them to adjust to our American culture. It is interesting to learn about deaf Chinese way of life through Rose and Barry Chau!

1999 Year of the Bible

The American Bible Society and churches around the country will follow the new program — "Five minutes a day," and you can read the whole New Testament in 1999. Why read the Bible? God will bless you. How? I don't know what blessing God has for you. Read the story, "The Little Lamb" and see how God touched the lives of those people.

If you need a New Testament Bible, ask your pastor. He will get you one. "Your Word is a lame that gives light wherever I walk."

The Word of God has the ability to touch and change a person no matter how young...

The Little Lamb

They will always remember the day they met little Silvana—they? Nurse Graciete Nogueira and the staff of Uberaba Children's Hospital in Brazil.

Little Silvana was three. Someone brought her into the emergency room. She suffered from painful, open sores on her face and body. But she had terrible behavior.

She did not obey and her foul language shocked Graciete and the other staff. How could such a young child learn to swear so loud and mean?

Silvana's medical history sheet quickly showed the answer: she was born and raised in a local prostitute place! She was only copying language she heard adults used.

The pediatrician on duty walked into the examination room. Gently and patiently Graciete and the doctor began to check the girl over. They took blood tests which showed Silvana suffered from advanced leukemia. They immediately began the medicine, hoping to stop the dread disease.

Graciete felt drawn to the little girl, and asked to be assigned to her case. She spent whatever time she could even meal breaks—to care for her young charge. Patiently she would bathe her, put fresh bandages on her sores and gently brush her hair. And to help little Silvana feel more at peace, she also began telling stories to her from the Bible.

They grew closer

Graciete explained how God created everything; beautiful things like the sky, the trees and water. And most important, as the little girl became more interested in the Lord, Graciete taught her to pray.

Soon Silvana's behavior began to change for the better. Through her new friend—whom she now affectionately called "Auntie"—and her wonderful Scripture stories, Silvana learned to trust others, to give love and receive love. The little girl with mean action and bad language and rebel was now gentle and cooperative. The doctors were able to slow the progress of Silvana's leukemia, but as her health returned, they faced a dilemma: how could they send her home in that prostitutes place? Finally they decided to keep the little girl at Children's Hospital.

As the weeks became months and then years, Silvana and Graciete grew even closer. When Silvana turned five, Graciete taught her the 23rd Psalm.

"Auntie, what does it mean?" Silvana asked.

"Well, sometimes a shepherd must go without food or sleep, and even risk his life, in order to care for his lambs," Graeiete replied. "God sent His Son, Jesus, whom He loved with all His heart, to be our Shepherd."

A treasured gift

Through the Bible Society, Graciete got New Reader Scripture booklet with a picture of a shepherd and his lamb on the cover, gave it to Silvana and taught her to recognize and understand each word. The little girl treasured her gift and read it through time and again, joyfully telling its message with anyone who would listen.

Sadly, after several years of remission, Silvana's illness came again, and this time doctors could not help her. Every day the child grew weaker, and Graciete spent every minute she could near her.

Then one night the little girl awoke from her sleep and said, "Good-bye, Auntie, I go to my shepherd." She closed her eyes and a few minutes later passed away.

The staff, particularly Graciete, grieved the loss of that precious child who had touched all of their lives.

The next day, as Graciete began to make over Silvana's bed, she discovered something that comforted her heart. There, tucked safely under the pillow was Silvana's most prized possession: the well-worn New Reader Scripture booklet, which along with Graciete's love and care, had helped the little girl to know and love the Lord.

Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago. One day I saw a sign that read, "HÉAVEN'S GROCERY STORE". As I got a little closer the door came open wide And when I came to myself I was standing inside. I saw a host of ANGELS. They were standing everywhere. One handed me a basket and said, "My Child shop with care". Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store. And all you couldn't carry, you could come back the next day for more.

First, I got some PATIENCE: LOVE was in the same row. Further down was UNDERSTANDING: You need that everywhere you go.

I got a box or two of wisdom, a bag or two of FAITH. I just couldn't miss the HOLY GHOST, For it was all over the place. I stopped to get some STRENGTH and COURAGE To help me run this race. By then my basket was getting full, But I remembered I needed some GRACE.

I didn't forget SALVATION. For SALVATION was free, So I tried to get enough of that To save both you and me.

Then I started up to the counter To pay my grocery bill. For I thought I had everything To do the MASTER'S will.

As I went up the aisle, I saw PRAYER: And I just had to put that in, For I knew when I stepped outside, I would run into sin.

PEACE AND JOY were plentiful; They were last on the shelf. SONG and PRAISE were hanging near, So I just helped myself.

Then I said to the angel. "Now, how much do I owe?" He smiled and said. "Just take them everywhere you go." Again, I smiled and said, "How much do I really owe?" He smiled again and said, "MY CHILD, JESUS PAID YOUR BILL A LONG, LONG TIME AGO."
